

The Nebraska Association For Gifted Presents...

A Parent/Community Presentation

Thursday, February 23, 2017

6:30 - 7:45 PM

Embassy Suites Hotel

555 S.10th Street, Old Market, Omaha NE

“All Things Gifted: Q & A For Parents And The Community

Best Practices, Meeting Social/Emotional Needs,
STEM Initiatives, Reading Rigor, Math/Science Rigor,
Summer Programs, Talent Search, College Planning,
More...FREE to the public

This evening program will explore key themes in contemporary parenting practices and family engagement that demonstrate the importance of families enabling all high ability students to realize their potential as gifted learners. Participants select the table topic of choice every 15 minutes. Presenters by local and regional providers. No child care provided. No registration needed.

Round Table Discussion Groups Include:

1. What should differentiated instruction look like. - NAG Board Member, <http://www.negifted.org/NAG/Board.html>
2. What can parents & teachers do to provide rigor in science and math? - NAG Board Member
3. What can parents & teachers do to provide rigor in reading? - NAG Board Member
4. Where are the summer programs for high ability? - NAG Board Member
5. Testing and mental health services - Kyle Kinney, Nebr. Family Helpline , <http://tinyurl.com/NAGHelpLine>
6. Enroll in college while in K-12-Lindsay Kretchman, UNL NEBRASKA Now <http://preview.tinyurl.com/NE-NOW>
7. Toys that make you think-Connie Hoeft, CR Toys, <http://www.shopcrtoys.com>
8. Duke Tip/Jack Kent Cooke Scholarships- Devin Patterson, Duke University, <https://tip.duke.edu>
9. Robotics and student interest in tech - Kathy Grotta Lego Education, <https://education.lego.com>
10. Professional development for teachers and community,- Tommy Tinajero, GT Ignite, <http://gtignite.com>
11. Global outreach for shared education-BeckyWalters,Opportunity Education, <http://www.opportunityeducation.org>
12. Creativity and problem solving with Carol Hess, Destination Imagination, <http://nebraskadi.org>
13. Tech advice for the connected parent Aaron Maurer, Coffee For The Brain, <http://coffeeforthebrain.com>
14. Film as a teaching tool., Dene Olgesby, Film Streams Inc., <http://www.filmstreams.org>
15. Online high school courses, Barbara Shousha,University of NE High School, <http://highschool.nebraska.edu>

•This program is part of the Nebraska Association For Gifted Conference (negifted.org)
February 23-24, 2017 @ Omaha Embassy Suites Old Market, 555 S. 10th Str.

•Parents, Educators, Counselors, Community Are Invited....Free to the public
•Public is welcome. A $25 NAG membership is offered, but not required — Questions to negifted@gmail.com

•This Community Session is Free

NO CHILD CARE PROVIDED